HOUSE OF ASSEMBLY ELECTION RULES

PART I

PROVISIONS AS TO TIME

Computation of time

1. In computing any period of time for the purposes of these rules, a Sunday, Christmas Day, Good Friday, other public holiday or day appointed for public thanksgiving or mourning shall be disregarded, and any such day shall not be treated as a day for the purpose of any proceedings up to the completion of the poll nor shall the returning officer be obliged to proceed with the counting of the votes thereon.

PART II

STAGES COMMON TO CONTESTED AND UNCONTESTED ELECTIONS

Notice of Election

2. The returning officer shall within two days after the receipt of the writ and not less than five clear days before the day fixed by the writ as nomination day publish a notice of the election, in the Form 1 set out in the Appendix stating

- (a) the place and times at which nomination papers are to be delivered on nomination day; and
- (b) the date of the poll in the event of a contest, and the notice shall state that forms of nomination paper may be obtained at the place and times specified therein.

Nomination of candidates

- 3.(1) Each candidate shall be nominated by a separate nomination paper, in the Form 2 set out in the Appendix, delivered by the candidate himself, his proposer or seconder to the returning officer at the place fixed for the purpose.
- (2) The nomination paper shall state the full names, place of residence and description of the candidate and the surname shall be placed first in the list of his names.
- (3) The description shall not refer to the candidate's political activities and need not refer to his rank, profession or calling so long as, with the other particulars of the candidate, it is sufficient to identify him.
- (4) If the description is unduly long, the returning officer after consultation (if possible) with the candidate or his election agent, proposer or seconder, may shorten it or substitute another.

Subscription of nomination paper

- 4.(1) The nomination paper shall be subscribed by two electors as proposer and seconder, and by two other electors as assenting to the nomination.
- (2) Where a nomination paper bears the signature of more than the required number of persons as proposing, seconding or assenting to the nomination of a candidate, the signature or signatures (up to the required number) appearing first on the paper in each category shall be taken into account to the exclusion of any other in that category.
- (3) The nomination paper shall give the electoral number of each person subscribing to it.
- (4) The returning officer shall supply an elector with a form of nomination paper at the place and during the time for delivery of nomination papers and shall at the request of any elector prepare a nomination paper for signature, but it shall not be necessary for a nomination to be on a form supplied by the returning officer.

(5) Subject to paragraph (6), no person shall subscribe more than one nomination paper at the same election and, if he does, his signature shall be inoperative on any paper other than the one first delivered.

(6) Notwithstanding paragraph (5), a person shall not be prevented from subscribing a nomination paper only because he has subscribed that of a candidate who has died or withdrawn before delivery of the first-mentioned paper.

(7) For the purposes of this rule, the expression “elector” means a person who is registered as an elector in the constituency in a register to be used at the election, or who, pending the publication of that register, appears from the register of electors or revised register of electors prepared pursuant to the provisions of the Act to be entitled to be registered, and the expression “electoral number” means a person’s number in the said register or, pending the publication of the register, his number (if any) in the electors’ list or special lists therefor.

Consent to nomination

5.(1) Subject to paragraph (2), a person shall not be validly nominated unless his consent to nomination, given in writing on or within one month before the day fixed as the day for the delivery of nomination papers and attested by one witness, is delivered at the place and within the time for the delivery of nomination papers.

(2) Notwithstanding paragraph (1), if the returning officer is satisfied that owing to the absence of a person from Barbados it has not been reasonably practicable for his consent in writing to be given, a telegram consenting to his nomination and purporting to have been sent by him shall be deemed, for the purpose of this rule, to be consent in writing given by him on the day on which it purports to have been sent and attestation of his consent shall not be required.

Deposit

6.(1) A person shall not be validly nominated unless the sum of two hundred and fifty dollars is deposited by him or on his behalf with the Accountant-General and the receipt therefor produced to the returning officer at the place and within the time for the delivery of nomination papers.

(2) The deposit may be made either by the deposit of any legal tender, by means of a banker's draft or, with the consent of the Accountant-General, in any other manner:

Provided that the Accountant-General may refuse to accept a deposit sought to be made by means of a banker's draft, if he does not know that the drawer carries on business as a banker in Barbados.

Place for delivery of nomination papers and for making objection thereto

7.(1) The returning officer shall fix the place in the constituency at which nomination papers are to be delivered to him and shall attend there during the time for the delivery thereof and for the making of objections.

(2) On the day of nomination, the returning officer shall attend at the place fixed therefor between the hours of 10 a.m. and 4 p.m.

(3) No nomination paper shall be accepted after 3 p.m. on the day of nomination and no objection to a nomination paper shall be made after 4 p.m. that day.

Decision as to validity of nomination papers

8.(1) Where a nomination paper and the candidate's consent thereto are delivered and a deposit is made in accordance with these rules, the candidate shall be deemed to stand nominated unless and until the returning officer decides that the nomination paper is invalid or proof is given to the satisfaction of the returning officer of the candidate's death, or the candidate withdraws.

- (2) The returning officer shall be entitled to hold a nomination paper invalid on one of the following grounds only:
- (a) that the particulars of the candidate or the person subscribing the paper are not as required by law;
 - (b) that the paper is not subscribed as so required.
- (3) The returning officer shall give his decision on any objection to a nomination paper as soon as practicable after it is made.
- (4) Where he decides that a nomination paper is invalid, he shall endorse and sign on the paper the fact and the reasons for his decision.
- (5) The decision of the returning officer that a nomination paper is valid shall be final and shall not be questioned in any proceeding whatsoever.
- (6) Subject to paragraph (5), nothing in this rule shall prevent the validity of a nomination being questioned on an election petition lodged pursuant to the Election Offences and Controversies Act, Cap. 3.

Withdrawal of candidate

- 9.(1) A candidate may withdraw his candidature by notice of withdrawal signed by him and attested by one witness and delivered to the returning officer at the place and within the time for delivery of nomination papers.
- (2) In the case of a candidate who is outside Barbados, a notice of withdrawal signed by his proposer and accompanied by a written declaration also so signed, of the candidate's absence from Barbados shall be of the same effect as a notice of withdrawal signed by the candidate.
- (3) Where the candidate stands nominated by more than one nomination paper, a notice of withdrawal under this paragraph shall not be effective unless—
- (a) in addition to the accompanying declaration it is signed by all the proposers except any who is, and is stated in the said declaration to be, outside Barbados; or

- (b) it is accompanied in addition to the said declaration, by a written statement signed by the candidate that the proposer giving the notice is authorised to do so on the candidate's behalf during his absence from Barbados.

Publication of nominations

10.(1) The returning officer shall as soon as practicable after the expiration of the time for making objections prepare and publish a statement showing the persons who have been and stand nominated and any other persons who have been nominated, with the reason why they no longer stand nominated.

(2) The statement shall show the names, addresses and descriptions of the persons nominated as given in their nomination papers, together with the names of the persons subscribing those papers.

(3) The statement shall show the persons standing nominated arranged alphabetically in the order of their surnames, and if there are two or more of them with the same surname, of their other names.

(4) In the case of a person nominated by more than one nomination paper, the returning officer shall take the particulars required by paragraphs (1), (2) and (3) from such one of the papers as the candidate or the returning officer, in default of the candidate, may select, but if the election is contested a candidate standing nominated may require the returning officer to include in the statement the names of the persons subscribing a second and third nomination paper.

Provided that no fresh nomination shall be necessary in the case of a person shown in the statement as standing nominated.

(2) Where because of the death of a candidate proceedings at an election are commenced afresh under this rule, then the returning officer shall fix—

(2) The returning officer may limit the number of counting agents, so that the number shall be the same in the case of each candidate and the number allowed to a candidate shall not (except in special circumstances) be less than the number obtained by dividing the number of clerks employed on the counting by the number of candidates.

(3) Any person so removed may, if charged with the commission in the polling station of an offence, be dealt with as a person taken into custody by a constable for an offence without a warrant.

(4) The powers conferred by this rule shall not be exercised so as to prevent a voter who is otherwise entitled to vote at a polling station from having an opportunity of voting at that station.

Sealing of ballot boxes

26. Immediately before the commencement of the poll, the presiding officer shall show the ballot box empty to such persons, if any, as are present in the polling station, so that they may see that it is empty, and shall then lock it and place his seal on it in such a manner as to prevent its being opened without breaking the seal, and shall place it in his view for the receipt of ballot papers and keep it so locked and sealed.

(2) A person against whom a declaration is made under this rule shall not because of this be prevented from voting.

(2) A ballot paper on which the vote is marked—

- (a) elsewhere than in the proper place; or
- (b) otherwise than by means of a cross; or
- (c) by more than one mark, shall not because of this be deemed to be void if an intention that the vote be for one or other of the candidates clearly appears, and the way the paper is marked does not of itself identify the voter and it is not shown that he can be identified thereby.

(3) The returning officer shall endorse the word “rejected” on any ballot paper which under this rule is not to be counted, and shall add to the endorsement the words “rejection objected to” if an objection is made by a counting agent to his decision.

(4) The returning officer shall draw up a statement showing the number of ballot papers rejected under the several heads of—

- (a) want of official mark;
- (b) voting for more than one candidate;
- (c) writing or mark by which voter could be identified; and
- (d) unmarked or wholly void for uncertainty,

and any counting agent may copy the statement.

Equality of votes

41. Where, after the count of the votes (including any re-count) is completed, an equality of votes is found to exist between any candidates and the addition of a vote would entitle any of those candidates to be declared elected, a new writ shall be issued in respect of that constituency and all proceedings for an election of a member for that constituency shall commence afresh.

*Foreign Service VotingPresiding officer of Mission to be furnished with certain documents

42.(1) The Supervisor of Elections shall furnish to the presiding officer of each Mission the documents and materials referred to in paragraphs (3) and (4) of rule 21 and in addition—

- (a) that the signature on the identification card resembles that on the polling station card; or
- (b) that the photograph on the identification card is a true likeness of the applicant.

(2) Where the applicant proves to the satisfaction of the presiding officer that his identification card is lost or destroyed, the presiding officer shall, on being satisfied that the photograph on the polling station card is a true likeness of the applicant, deliver to him a foreign service ballot paper.

(3) The voter on receiving the foreign service ballot paper shall proceed to the place in the Mission provided for the purpose and there secretly mark his paper, fold it so as to conceal his vote and show the presiding officer the back of the said ballot paper so as to disclose the official mark.

- (4) The presiding officer shall then deliver to the voter the appropriate ballot paper envelope showing on the outside thereof the voter's polling district and the covering envelope addressed to the appropriate returning officer.

49. The Supervisor of Elections shall on the day specified as polling day in Barbados open the packet containing the documents transmitted in accordance with rule 48 and shall forward to the appropriate returning officer the covering envelopes and documents relating to his constituency.

Opening of covering envelopes

50.(1) At the place provided for the count of the votes and before the commencement of the count, the returning officer shall, in the presence of such of the persons referred to in rule 36 (1) as may be present, separately open each covering envelope and the foreign service ballot paper envelope, if any, contained therein.

(2) Where such envelopes do not contain a foreign service ballot paper, the returning officer shall mark the covering envelope “ no ballot paper ” and also “ rejected ”, attach thereto the contents, if any, of the said envelopes and place them in a receptacle provided for the purpose.

(3) On opening a covering envelope or a foreign service ballot paper envelope, if a foreign service ballot paper therein is unfolded, the returning officer shall immediately fold the same taking all proper precautions for preventing any person from seeing the face of the ballot paper.

For the purposes of this paragraph the number of votes polled shall be the number of ballot papers counted, other than ballot papers endorsed by the returning officer with the word "rejected".

(5) Notwithstanding this rule, where at a general election a candidate is shown as standing nominated in more than one constituency in the statements of persons nominated, not more than one of the deposits shall be returned and, if necessary, the Accountant-General shall direct which it is to be.

PART V
DISPOSAL OF DOCUMENTS

Verification of ballot paper account

55.(1) On the completion of the count at a contested election, the returning officer shall seal in separate packets the counted ballot papers and the ballot papers rejected in whole or in part.

(2) The returning officer shall then in the presence of the counting agents verify each ballot paper account by comparing it with the number of ballot papers recorded by him or by the Supervisor of Elections, as the case may be, and the unused and spoilt ballot papers in his possession and the tendered votes list (opening and resealing the packets containing the unused and spoilt ballot papers and the tendered votes list) and shall draw up a statement as to the result of the verification, which any counting agent may copy.

(2) An order under this rule may be made subject to such conditions as to time, place and mode of inspection, production or opening of such documents as the

Provided that in making and carrying into effect an order for the opening of a packet of counterfoils or letters or for the inspection of counted ballot papers, care shall be taken that the way in which the vote of any particular elector has been given shall not be disclosed until it has been proved that his vote was given and that the vote has been declared by the Court to be invalid.

(3) Any power given under this rule may be exercised by a judge otherwise than in open court.

(4) Where an order is made for the production by the Registrar of any document in his possession relating to any specified election, the production by him or his agent of the document in such manner as may be directed by that order shall be conclusive evidence that the document relates to the specified election and any endorsement on any packet of ballot papers so produced shall be prima facie evidence that the ballot papers are what they are stated to be by the endorsement.

(5) The production from proper custody of a ballot paper purporting to have been used at any election, and of a counterfoil marked with the same printed number and having a number marked thereon in writing, shall be prima facie evidence that the elector whose vote was given by that ballot paper was the person who at the time of the election had affixed to his name in the register of electors the same number as the number written on the counterfoil.

(6) Subject to this rule, no person shall be allowed to inspect any rejected or counted ballot paper in the possession of the Registrar or to open any sealed packets of counterfoils or of letters received by presiding officers from election officers or candidates and containing the request mentioned in paragraph (3) of rule 30.

Retention and public inspection of documents

58.(1) The Registrar shall retain for one year all documents relating to an election delivered to him under these rules by the Supervisor of Elections, and then, unless otherwise directed by order of the Court, shall cause them to be destroyed.
