BARBADOS*IRRIGATION

1966-7

An Act to provide for the powers of the Chief Agricultural Officer with respect to irrigation and for related purposes.

[Commencement: 1st February, 1967]

Short title

1. This Act may be cited as the Irrigation Act.*

[This Chapter comprises the continuing provisions of the Irrigation Board (Validation) (Vesting of Property and Transfer of Functions) Act, 1966, 1966-7.]*

Interpretation

2. For the purposes of this Act, the expression “Minister” means the Minister responsible for Agriculture.

Powers conferred on Chief Agricultural Officer with respect to irrigation

3. The Chief Agricultural Officer may, with the approval of the Minister—

- (a) carry out, or cause to be carried out, any research, scientific or engineering investigation, survey or any other enquiry of any kind whatsoever for the purpose of ascertaining whether irrigation of any land is necessary or desirable for increasing the production of sugar or other agricultural produce in this Island or otherwise for the benefit of the agricultural industries of this Island;
- (b) investigate, and experiment with, any plant, machinery, schemes or plans for the purpose of such irrigation or cause any such investigation or experiment to be carried out;
- (c) irrigate, or cause to be irrigated, any land whatsoever and, for that purpose, distribute water or control or operate any irrigation works or any plant or machinery connected therewith.
