SCHEDULE

Constitution, Procedure and Functions of the Board

BARBADOS*NATIONAL PRODUCTIVITY COUNCIL 1996-19

An Act to provide for a National Productivity Council.

[Commencement: 12th September, 1996]

Short title

1. This Act may be cited as the National Productivity Council Act.

Interpretation

2. For the purposes of this Act

“Board” means the Board of Directors of the Council established under section 5;

“business” includes any trade, profession or vocation;

“Council” means the National Productivity Council established under section 3;

“income” means income from any source including wages, salaries, allowances, payments in kind, fringe benefits, lump sum payments and professional fees;

“Minister” means the Minister responsible for Economic Affairs;

“productivity” means the relationship between the output generated by a production or service system and the input provided to create that output;

“public service”

(a) has the meaning assigned to it by section 117 of the Constitution, and

(b) includes

(i) bodies corporate established by law for public purposes which are funded by monies provided by Parliament;

(ii) the Central Bank of Barbados established under the Central Bank of Barbados Act, Cap. 323C, and

(iii) any other body

(A) the funds of which, comprise or include such monies as under an enactment may be voted by Parliament for the purpose; or

(B) all or any of the expenses of which are charges on, or are met from the Consolidated Fund;

but does not include a body by reason only that a donation or ex gratia payment is made from the Consolidated Fund to that body.

3.(1) There is established a body to be known as the National Productivity Council.

(2) The Council is a body corporate to which section 21 of the Interpretation Act, Cap. 1 applies.

Functions of the Council

4. The functions of the Council are
- (a) to create and develop methodologies for productivity measurement, management and improvement in the public service and the private sector;
 - (b) to provide technical advice and assistance for devising productivity related payment schemes;
 - (c) to engage in consultations with any fact-finding body or arbitration tribunal on any matter relating to the functions of the Council;
 - (d) to promote and monitor all aspects of productivity growth;
 - (e) to assist in the development of improved methods of work organisation geared to the enhancement of productivity levels;
 - (f) to design, advise on, and conduct, educational programmes;
 - (g) to disseminate information intended to stimulate public awareness and promote understanding of the need to improve the quality of work performance nationally and in the context of international trends and standards;
 - (h) to assist in creating a climate which would maximise the use of productivity gains in collective bargaining exercises; and
 - (i) to do such further things as are necessary to carry out effectively the purposes of this Act.

Board of Directors

- 5.(1) There is hereby established a Board of Directors of the Council which is responsible for the policy and general administration of the Council.
- (2) The Schedule has effect with respect to the constitution of the Board and otherwise in relation thereto.

Information gathering

6.(1) In the performance of its functions the Board may request and collect any relevant information, including information relating to wages, salaries and other income.

(2) The Board shall examine the information referred to in subsection (1) and may report its findings to the Minister.

Remuneration

7. The Directors of the Council are entitled to such remuneration and allowances as the Minister determines.

Disclosure of directors' interest

8.(1) A director of the Council who has any interest in a company or concern with which the Council proposes to make a contract or transact any other business shall disclose to the Council the particulars of that interest and details of the disclosure shall be recorded in the minutes taken at the meeting at which the disclosure is made.

(2) A director referred to in subsection (1) shall not take part in any deliberation or discussion of the Board relating to that contract or business.

Directions of Minister etc.

9.(1) The Minister may, after consultation with the Chairman of the Board, give directions of a general nature in respect of the policy to be followed by the Board in the performance of its functions under this Act and the Board shall comply with the directions.

(2) The Minister may refer any relevant matter to the Board and the Board shall examine the matter and report to the Minister.

Appointment of Executive Director

10.(1) The Board shall, with the approval of the Minister, appoint an Executive Director, who shall be an employee of the Council.

(2) The Executive Director is subject to the directions of the Board and is responsible to the Board for the execution of its policy and the management of the Council.

Appointment of staff

11.(1) The Board may, subject to subsection (2), employ at such remuneration and on such terms and conditions as it thinks fit, such persons as it deems necessary for the proper discharge of the functions of the Council.

(2) The Board may assign remuneration to any post within salary scales which are approved by the Minister in writing.

(3) All officers and other employees who are members of the staff of the National Productivity Board upon the 12th September, 1996, shall upon that date, comprise the staff of the Council.

Pension rights and service

12.(1) Where a public officer or public employee is seconded or temporarily transfers from a pensionable office within the meaning of the Pensions Act, Cap. 25 or the Public Employees Pensions Act, Cap. 30 as the case may be to perform any service with the Council, his service with the Council, shall, unless the Governor-General otherwise decides, count for pension under those Acts as if the officer had not been so seconded or transferred.

(2) If the services of a person employed by the Council are on loan to the Government he is entitled to such benefits and terms of employment as are applicable to the post which he occupies, and the service with the Council shall be taken into account as continuous service with the Government and the Pensions Act and Pensions Regulations, 1947 or the Public Employees Pensions

Act and the Public Employees Pensions Regulations, 1961, as the case may be, shall apply to him as if his service with the Council were service within the meaning of those Acts.

(3) Where a public officer or a public employee is transferred to the service of the Council in accordance with subsection (4), the Council shall refund to the Consolidated Fund all moneys payable as pension in respect of the service of that officer with the Council.

(4) Where

(a) a public officer or a public employee is transferred to an office in the service of the Council; or

(b) an officer of the Council is transferred to an office in the public service, the Pensions Act or the Public Employees Pensions Act as the case may be shall apply to him as if his service with the Council was other public service within the meaning of those Acts, and the Pensions Regulations, 1947 or the Public Employees Pensions Regulations, 1961 shall apply to him accordingly as if the Council were a Scheduled Government within the meaning of regulation 8(1) of the Pensions Regulations, 1947.

Funds of the Council

13. The funds of the Council shall consist of

(a) moneys voted by Parliament for the purposes of the Council;

(b) moneys that may accrue from the operations of the Council;

(c) moneys payable to, or property vested in the Council;

(d) moneys borrowed by the Board for the purposes of the Council; and

(e) moneys that may become available from any other source.

Accounts and audit

14.(1) The Council shall keep proper accounts of its transactions in relation to the administration of the resources of the Council in accordance with the directions of the Auditor-General or any auditor appointed under subsection (2) and shall prepare a statement of accounts in respect of each financial year.

(2) The accounts of the Council shall be audited annually by an auditor appointed by the Board with the approval of the Minister.

(3) The Auditor-General may at any time, and shall on the direction of the Minister of Finance, carry out an investigation into or special audit of the accounts of the Council.

Access by auditor

15.(1) A director, officer or employee of the Council shall afford the Auditor-General or other auditor appointed under section 14, access to all books, documents, cash and securities of the Council and on request shall give to the Auditor-General or auditor, any information within the knowledge of that director, officer or employee that relates to the operations of the Council.

(2) A person who wilfully fails to comply with this section is guilty of an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine of $1 000 or imprisonment for 12 months or both.

Annual report

16.(1) The Board must not later than 3 months after the end of each year, submit to the Minister a report containing, in respect of the Authority

- (a) a summary of the decisions of the Council in respect of any matter it acted upon;
- (b) detailed information in respect of any matter that the Board considers to be of public importance in relation to national productivity; and

- (c) a statement of the accounts of the Council for that financial year in accordance with section 14.
- (2) The Minister shall lay before Parliament a copy of the report referred to in subsection (1) within 2 months of receiving that report.

Fees

17. The Council may on the advice of the Board, charge such fees for any service performed by it as is prescribed by order made by the Minister of Finance.
